GRANADA

Dear Chris,

There's so much to say in so little space! I'm not sure where to begin! I just met you 1 month ago and I think we get along super! You really are a wonderful person. I'm so mad that we couldn't of gotten to know each other sooner. Why didn't you look at me funny in the beginning of the semester? Huh? Did it take you that long to figure it out??? Probably. - So what are we going to do now? Are we going to get together over the summer or chat on the phone, or what? - I'm really sorry that we can't be more than friends! - I can settle for that, at least!

I do apreciate all the caring you've done. Worring about my bad moods, being in half of them, or just putting up with me. - That takes a lot. (You deserve an award.) J/K.

Anyhow, I really wish you were in 12th. Not that it would change anything, but I + # would be fun graduating w/ you and maybe going to the same college. At least you took Creative Writing. Because if you didn't we probably would of never met. I'm sure glad we did though!

Chris, you're very special person to me! I care about you alot. I can't stress enough how I hope we continue to talk. If you + I can't talk we'll write. (or something)

Well, that's about all!

I left enough space for a small writer!

I love ya! Love always

~~Mike~~,
Chris,
You were one of the unfortunate ones. You were afflicted with a chronic case of senioritis long before your time. You've got a good head on your shoulders. For many cases like yours, and I have confidence that you will succeed, if you decide to. I also think that you will decide to. It's too bad I didn't meet you sooner in my high school career, but I'm glad that we became friends. Let's keep in touch and do something over the summer.

Your friend,
Mike Mosbaime

↑ Let me know how you're doing.

Granada Hills, we praise thee with voices loud and clear,
Our hearts and minds we pledge to our Alma Mater dear.
From halls of wisdom, knowledge has guided us to fame,
And, as Highlanders, we shall ever guard your honored name.

The Highlands rule over the valley stretched below,
Defended in splendor 'gainst each and every foe.
The kelly green, and black, and white are the Highland colors true,
With the deepest devotion — We pledge our hearts to you.

Participation is the heart of school spirit.

GRANADA

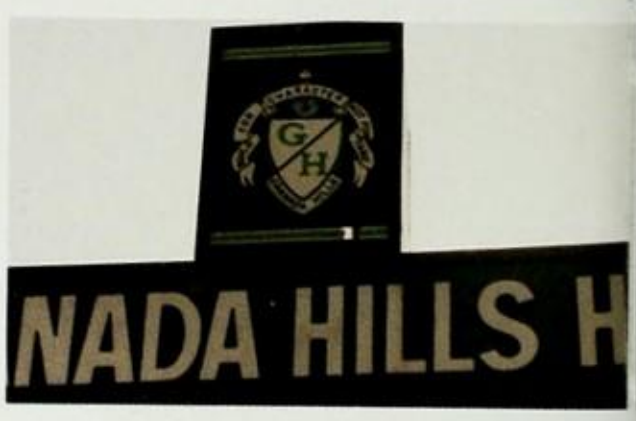
A quarter of a century ago, Granada Hills High School was opened.

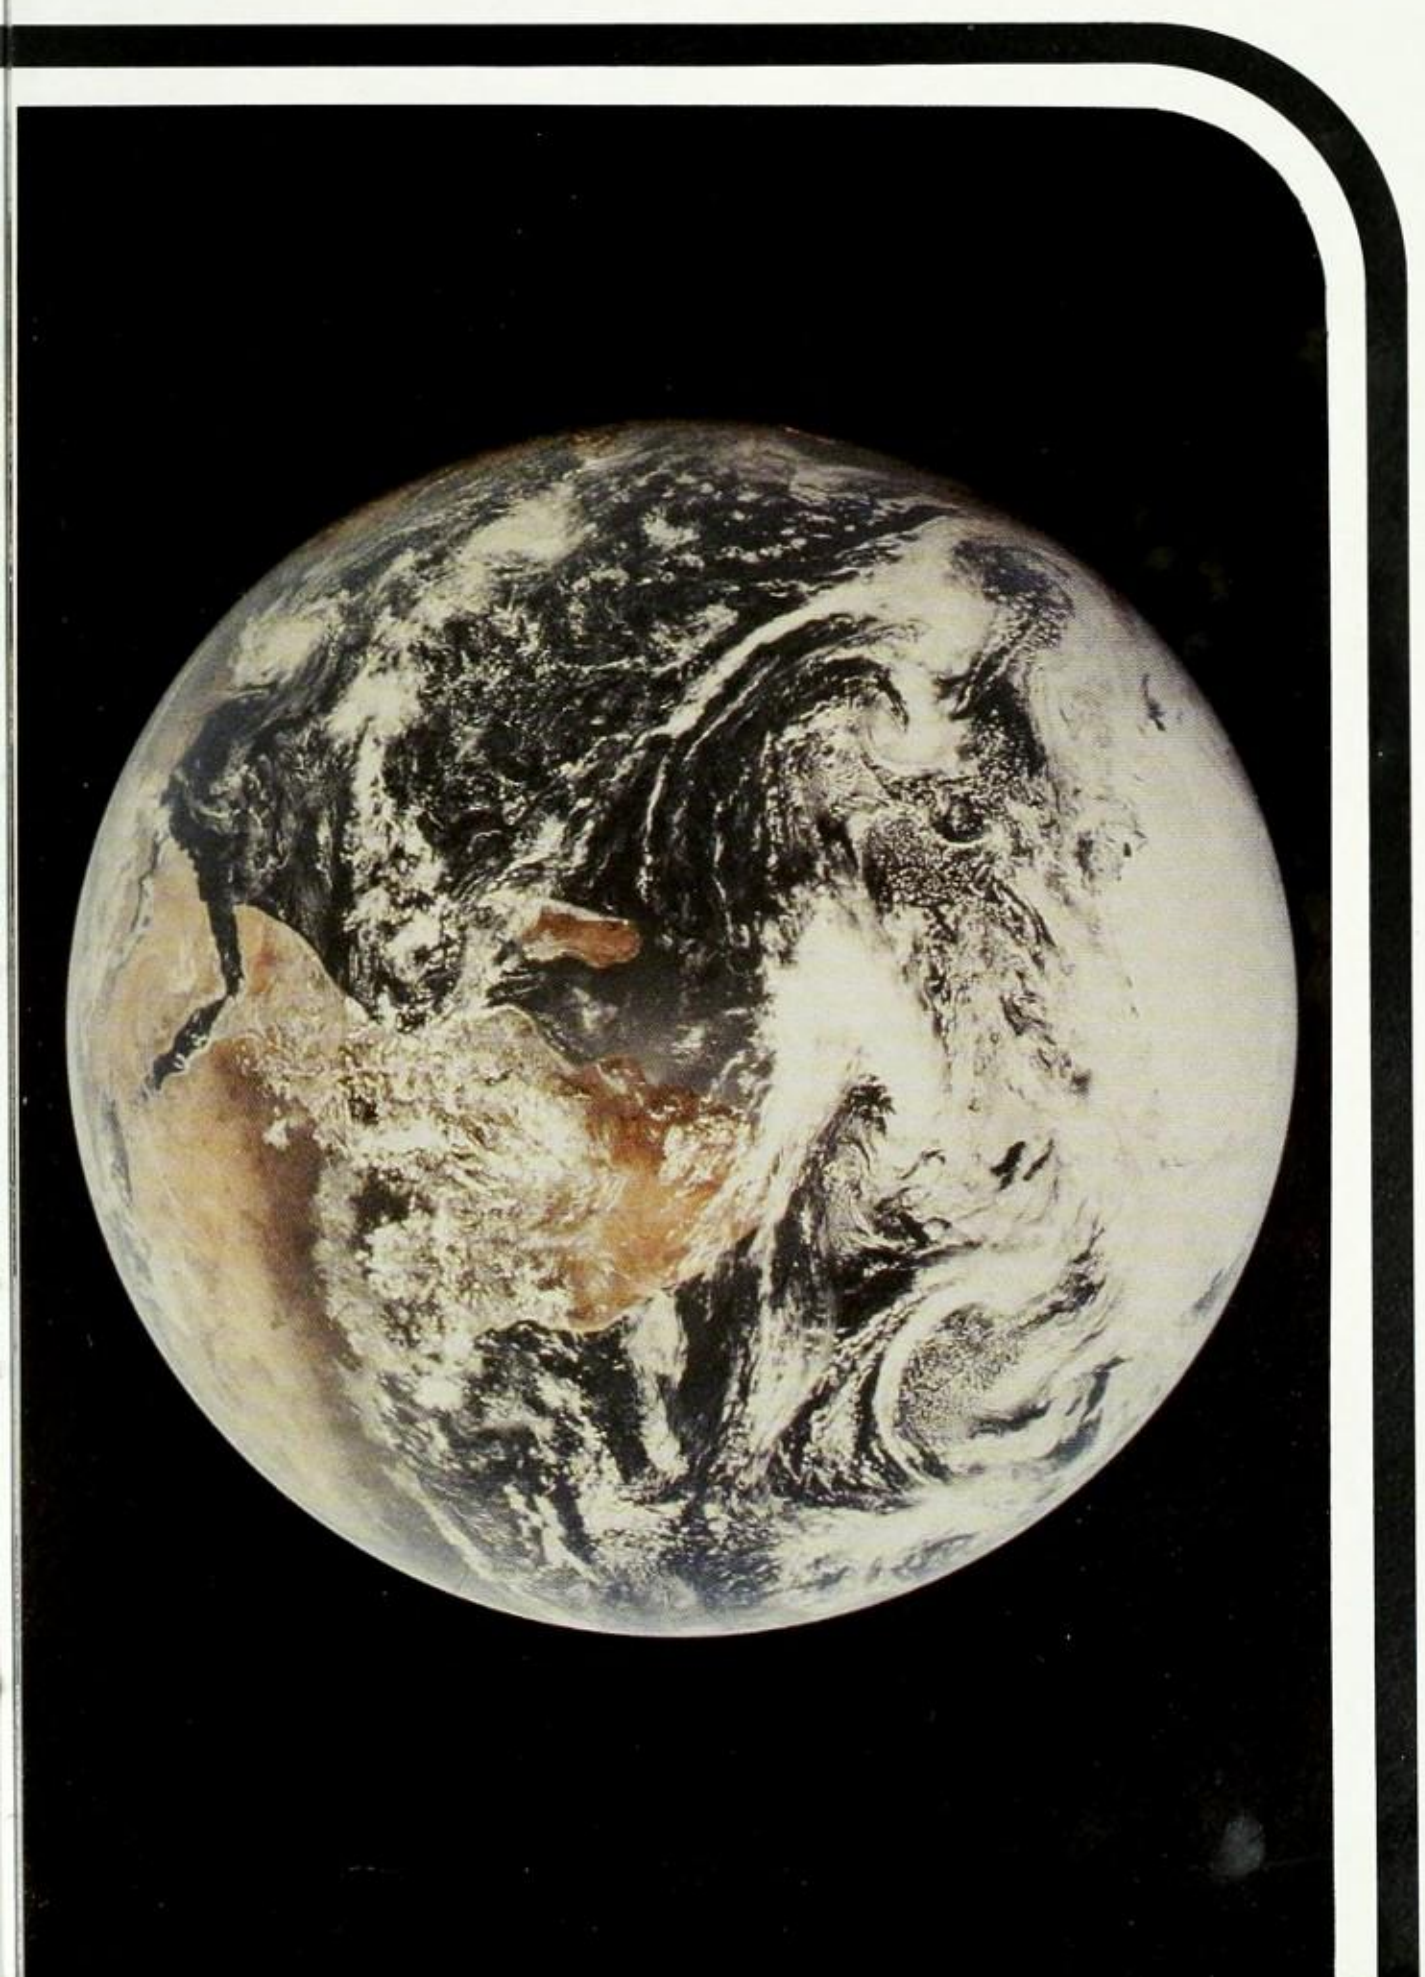
Through the past twenty-five years many changes have taken place on our campus and around the world.

We still live with many of the decisions the class of 1960 made. Such as our school theme, name, colors etc. . . .

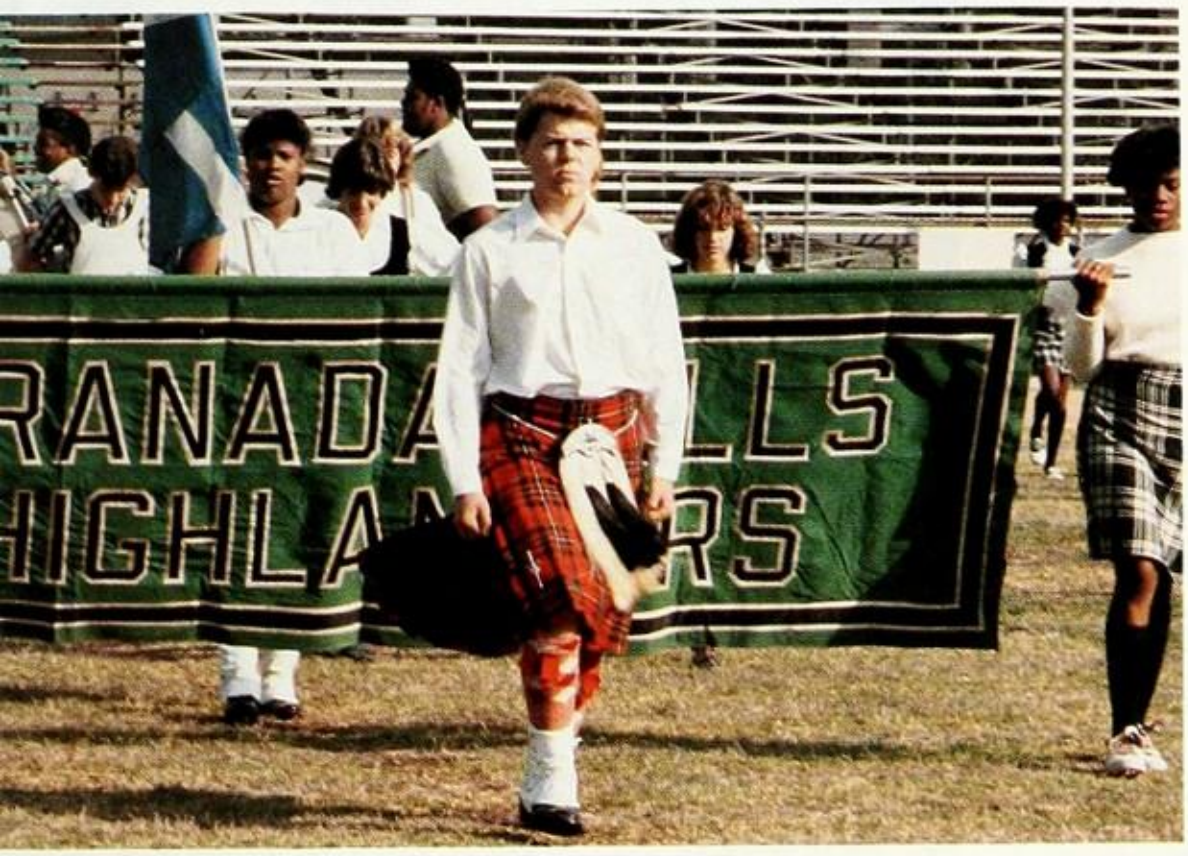
This year marks the 25th anniversary of G.H.H.S., our "Scot Pride" is sure to last another 25 years.

Happy Birthday, Granada!





ACTIVITIES



Pep Assembly Presents Fall Sports Teams

Like all the preceding years, this year's Fall Pep Assembly was filled with the famous Granada Hills High School spirit. Following an impressive performance by the band and drill team, the members of Student Council were presented.

The fall sports teams were then introduced to the crowd, along with the fall varsity, Bee, and class cheerleaders.

Friday Pep Rallies

Pep rallies on Fridays have become a spirited Granada tradition. To get the student body ready for the big game, cheerleaders, the band, Highland Dancers, and Drill Team perform. They all did their share in supporting our varsity and Bee football teams in winning their respective league championships.

Homecoming Game

The 1984 Homecoming Game was a night to remember despite our loss to El Camino. However, the Bee Team kept their undefeated season alive.

The night started off with the "I Love LA" theme and many fabulous floats. The Junior Class captured First Place with their float. Following the Homecoming Parade was the moment all were waiting for — the introduction of the Homecoming Court. Anthony Beneduce and Stefanie Forsey proudly walked away with the King and Queen titles. Karen Adler, Jackie Bobo, Julie Ritter and Carlena Gower were the princesses and Chris Chudacaff, Juris Lozenicins, Ron Glotzer and Stuart Levy were the princes. The night was filled with excitement and fun was had by all.

Senior Picnic

The Senior Picnic, held on October 23, was a memorable occasion for all who attended.

The highlights of the day were the football game, a pie eating contest (which turned out to be a pie toss), and a roller ride formed down a hill.

The traditional pyramid was formed and lasted for several seconds before it crashed to the ground.

Those who attended agreed it was a good activity with which to start the Senior Class calendar.

Spring Tryouts

In front of an enthusiastic crowd, girls tried out for the positions on the spring varsity and junior varsity cheerleading squads. The girls had to learn three cheers and a song routine to tune "Bring Your Love Down" by the Jazz Band. They also had to demonstrate kicks and jumps to show their competence in those areas. The girls all did an excellent job and had a lot of fun.

The Sports Arena was filled with excitement. The night the Highlander Marching Band and Bonnie Lassie drill team competed in the city finals as reigning 2A divisional champions. This year however, the band and drill team was put into the 3A division, which consists of the larger high school bands. Granada placed 2nd in their division with the performance that band and drill team gave. It was evident that Granada kept the tradition of pride, precision, and intensified spirit.

Competing with Granada in the 3A division were Lincoln High School and Cleveland High School.

Alumni Baseball

This years alumni baseball game was a big success. For the alumni anyway! One of the major attractions at the game was an appearance by John Elway. Many other players, now playing professionally, or in college came to the game to take on the varsity. The alumni for the first time in many years beat the varsity team with a score of 11-3. But despite the varsity's big loss the day was one to remember.

Varsity takes title

Not since the year of 1977 has Granada's varsity football team stood so tall, capturing their first valley 4-A league title in 7 years. The scots used three single point league victories to win back recognition as the power in the valley.

The Scots, piloted by Desmond Cerceo, used a devastating air attack and a powerful running game to dismantle their opponents. Granada's "Death Trap" defense returned to stop opposing offenses dead in their tracks. Granada's powerful offensive line including all-leagers: Kevin Hooper, Darrelln Williams, Jordan Cohen, and Rick Spalla were the key to the team's success.

Bee Football Team Is Undefeated Again!

The 1984-85 Bee football team, coached by Tom Harp and Darryl Stroh, placed as league champs once again after a sensational season — establishing a two year undefeated, winning streak. The highlight of the season came when the Bees defeated our rivals, the Kennedy Cougars, in a 21-0 victory. Khalid Ali, the offensive tailback, lead the league in touchdowns, and rushed for an all-time Bee record of 1,037 yards. Among the defensive players were Danny Takahashi and Dean Yashanti. The defense only gave up one touchdown the whole season.

Volleyball Starts Off Strong!

With an all time record of 50 participants trying out for the Spring 1985 varsity and junior varsity volleyball teams, an unexpected 22 were chosen. Although each and every one of the 50 participants displayed his/her best shot at volleyball, this unexpected group of 22 excelled their endurance, for that extra mile that caught Coach Harps critical eye.

With volleyball being revived just last year at Granada, it has grown not only in size but in strength as well. The team, being disciplined and determined, had a lot of potential and a very good season.

"The best man for the job," Coach Harp has a magical way of turning amateurs into professionals. This was proven by the outstanding participation each player displayed.

Best Wishes to
SANDI SEARS
for a continued recovery

Dewey.

What a name huh? Even though I have only known you a short time, the time has been awesome. Our friendship really didn't start off all that normal, I mean I met you through Mala.

Hang in there buddy, all that you wish for in life will turn up on your doorstep one day. You deserve the best because you have so much to offer people and im glad I was able to share in a little of that happiness.

I hope our friendship can continue into the future because your really a special person to me. In-fact, you mean more to me than you'll ever really know.

May all your dreams and wishes come true, you deserve them all to the fullest.

One day ill take you out and fill you in on all of Mala's little adventures and anything else you would like to know.

Take Care and I love you,

Kathy Jan

P.S. Thanks for making me feel like I have a true friend always.
